

While we unequivocally denounce all forms of violence, our Soldiers stand as symbols of unwavering support and steadfast protection. When you gaze upon your Soldier, remember that you are never alone. You are embraced, cherished, and shielded, and there's always someone who holds you in their thoughts.

So, find a special place for your Soldier—whether it's in a prominent spot where you can see it daily or in a private space that speaks to your heart. Let it serve as a powerful reminder of your incredible worth and the enduring kindness and love that permeates our world.

Continue the journey with your Soldier and pass the other along to someone who could benefit from feeling supported and protected. Share the love and strength encapsulated in your Soldier with someone who needs it most.

And if you're willing, capture a photo of your Soldier out in the world and share it using #soldiersforkindness.

Tag @jennamcdonough so we can witness the beautiful ripples of kindness spreading far and wide!
